Find the Light

Eyes that see - Niki Nelson, AI generated

[Verse 1]

Woke up to the morning light,
Everything's in colors, so bright.
Birds are singing, skies are clear,
Miracles happen, far and near.

With every step, the world unfolds,
A story of wonder, yet untold.
In every breath, in every smile,
Life's a treasure, mile by mile.

[Chorus]

Oh, how wonderful life can be,
When we look with eyes that see.
Hearts are filled with love and light,
Everything shines, oh, so bright.

[Verse 2]

Flowers bloom along the way,
Little miracles greet the day.
Every moment, a chance to see,
The beauty in simplicity.

In our hearts, love finds a home,
Guiding us wherever we roam.
Believe in dreams, they come alive,
In this world, where we thrive.

[Chorus]

Oh, how wonderful life can be,
When we look with eyes that see.
Hearts are filled with love and light,
Everything shines, oh, so bright.

[Bridge]

We're the creators of our fate,
Every choice, every date.
The world becomes what we believe,
In this truth, we achieve.

[Chorus]

Oh, how wonderful life can be,
When we look with eyes that see.
Hearts are filled with love and light,
Everything shines, oh, so bright.

[Outro]

So let's embrace this gift we're given,
With hearts so full and spirits risen.
Life is wonderful, can't you see?
We're the artists, wild and free.

[Chorus]

Oh, how wonderful life can be,
When we look with eyes that see.
Hearts are filled with love and light,
Everything shines, oh, so bright.

In harmony with nature - Niki Nelson, AI generated

(Verse 1)

Up in the morning light, we rise with the dawn,
Breathing in the air, so pure and so strong.
We walk on sacred ground, where the trees belong,
With every step, we hear nature's song.

Live in harmony, respect the earth,
Honor every life, for what it's worth.
The planet's crying out, let's heal the pain,
Together we can bring her life again.

(Verse 2)

The rivers run so deep, with stories to tell,
Of the days when the world was treated well.
The animals we share, their whispers in the breeze,
Remind us of the bond with the flowers and the trees.

(Chorus)

Live in harmony, respect the earth,
Honor every life, for what it's worth.
The planet's crying out, let's heal the pain,
Together we can bring her life again.

We've taken more than we can give,
But now it's time to learn to live.
In balance with the land and sea,
To let the natural world run free.

(Verse 3)

So plant the seeds of love, let the gardens grow,
With every tender care, the healing will show.
Let's walk the path of peace, hand in hand we'll find,
A world in tune with nature, hearts and minds aligned.

(Chorus)

Live in harmony, respect the earth,
Honor every life, for what it's worth.
The planet's crying out, let's heal the pain,
Together we can bring her life again.

(Outro)

With love and kindness, we'll pave the way,
For a brighter tomorrow, a better day.
Living in sync with the natural flow,
Together, we'll help our earth to glow.
